

Student Mobility Program

Last Updated Tuesday, 15 February 2011

Student Mobility Program What is Student Mobility Program? Student Mobility Program is an optional academic program offered by the Department of Food Science and Technology & Bogor Agricultural University to exposure students to international academic environment in other universities. Students from our Department has opportunity to enroll courses for a semester in other universities abroad. Scope of Activities This program will facilitate and accommodate student activities performed in academic programs held in the country and abroad. (1) Student Exchange Program This student exchange program accommodates FST student to enroll for a semester in other universities abroad as a reciprocal act of the Department's acceptance of students from the partner institution. The Department is currently joining Student Mobility Program under the Directorate General of Higher Education with Mae Fah Luang University (Thailand), Universiti Putra Malaysia and University Teknologi Mara (UiTM). Please click for here more information for Student Mobility Program in 2011. (2) Credit Earning Activities Our Department also facilitate students to join in credit earning activities program in other universities abroad. We also receives students from local and oversease univerities to enroll in credit earning activitoes program at our department. Currently, there are eight students from Universitas Andalas joining credit earning activities in Academic Year of 2010/2011. (3) Internship in Food Industry, Research Center or other Institutions FST students will be facilitate to perform intership program in local or overseas food industries, research centers, governmental or non-governmental institutions. (4) Participation in Short Course, Seminars, Workshop, Meetings, Conferences, Study Visit, and Other Types of Gatherings Students participating in short courses, seminar, workshop, meeting, conferences, study visit and other types of gatjhering s will be acknowledged and awarded with academic credit or merit according to the Department's procedure. (5) Participation in Cultural, Arts and Sports Activities Students from the Department are supported to participate in cultural, arts and sports activities in foreign countries or other international institution that could enrich their soft skill. Program for Overseas Students The Department of Food Science and Technology welcomes overseas students from similar areas to joint in our academic program. If you are interested to join to this student mobility program or full academic program, send your application to Head of Department of Food Science and Technology, Bogor Agricultural University. Further Information Further information of International Academic Program of Department of Food Science and Technology, please contact Head of Department of Food Science and Technology, Faculty of Agricultural Technology, Bogor Agricultural University. Contact Person: Dr. Eko Hari Purnomo Email: foodtech@indo.net.id or dfst@ipb.ac.id. Academic Appreciation The academic international activities (participation in seminar, international conference will be granted credit equal to that earned in International Special Assignment course or as Final Assignment.